

IP Scholarships

CSUSB International Programs Scholarship

This scholarship is available through the generous donation of former IP participants. The award is $500. Approximately five awards are made each year. Awardees will be selected based on academic excellence, financial need and the quality of their application. Open to all IP participants except applicants for Japan, China and Taiwan. Applications are available online.

http://www.gateway.calstate.edu/csuienet/IP_Scholarship_App.pd

Application Deadline: February 1 (May 1 for Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa).

For more information, please contact UH-235 or email to mlagos@csusb.edu

CSUSB Scholarships

AFSSA (Asian Faculty, Staff and Student Association)

AFSSA (Asian Faculty, Staff and Student Association, <http://asian.csusb.edu>) is now accepting applications for 10th annual scholarship award. The AFSSA scholarship is open to ALL students of CSUSB. Recipients of the award will be announced at the AFSSA Scholarship Award and Recognition Party in May 2009. Application Deadline: Tuesday, 4/14/2009, by 5PM.

Go to <http://asian.csusb.edu/scholarship2009.doc> for a copy of the application form.

The Association of Latino Faculty, Staff and Students (ALFSS)

The Association of Latino Faculty, Staff and Students (ALFSS) is offering ten $1,000 and one $1000 J.C. Robinson Memorial scholarships to deserving students. Applications for 2009/2010 are now available on the ALFSS website at: <http://alfss.csusb.edu>. Please visit this new website to receive additional ALFSS information.

ALFSS has awarded scholarships to new and continuing CSUSB students since 1985. More than $100,000 has been awarded to high school seniors, transfer, post baccalaureate and current CSUSB students. ALFSS is committed to serving a diverse community. It affirms the multiculturalism of this campus and invites students of all ethnicities to apply. Application deadline: March 30, 2009

CSUSB Scholarships for Study Abroad

ASI Research and Travel Fund

For Undergraduate and Graduate student research and travel related to research. Awards are available for up to $1,000, per candidate. There are several application deadlines, spread throughout the year. For an application or more information, go to

<http://gradstudies.csusb.edu/srt.html>

Scholarships for Travel

Fund # T205016 – Kinesiology Students Travel Gift Fund

Fund # T206605 – NSS Fund – Travel

Fund # T400090 – Ochoa Fernandez Family Study Abroad Endowment

Phi Beta Delta Scholarship

This scholarship is for students with significant involvement in activities that foster internationalism. To apply you must be nominated to be a member of the Phi Beta Delta. Awards are from $500 to $1000. For more information please come to UH-235 or email pamaya@csusb.edu

Asian Studies Minor Program Scholarship

For information please contact Dr. Rueyling Chuang at rchuang@csusb.edu

Phone: 909.537.5780

Federal Student Aid and Scholarships

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

To apply for financial aid, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. The application form is available around December of each year and may be mailed to the Federal Processor after January. All applicants should file as soon as possible after January 1. The application may be completed with accurate estimates of parents' (when required) and student's previous year income before tax returns are filed, but will need to be verified later with copies of the tax returns. The CSUSB Financial Aid Office will not process financial aid applications until the student has applied for admission. For more information go to UH -150 or send an email to finaid@csusb.edu

Financial Aid for Study Abroad

Financial aid for undergraduate study abroad consists mainly of federal grants and federal and private loans. However, scholarship money is also available from organizations and sponsoring companies. Applicants are encouraged to speak with their campus financial aid officer and study abroad adviser to learn more about specific funding options available at—and required procedures for—their college or university.

Loans and grants offered by the U.S. federal government are Federal grants, loans and scholarships. Please visit this website for more information http://www.nafsa.org/students.sec/financial_aid_for_study.

Fulbright

For US students in an accepted study abroad program. To apply go to: www.fulbright.org or contact Paul Amaya, Interim Director of the International Center in UH-235, or at 909-537-5193 or send an email to pamaya@csusb.edu

Fulbright Program

Fulbright Program is for students (a graduating senior; hold a B.S./B.A. degree; or a master's or doctoral degree candidate; or are a young professional or artist), scholars, and professionals to undertake international graduate study, advanced research, university teaching, and teaching in elementary and secondary schools worldwide.

Deadline October 20, 2008 website <http://us.fulbrightonline.org>

The Gilman Scholarship for Study Abroad

For PELL Grant recipients in an accepted study abroad program. Recipients can receive up to either $3,000 for summer programs or $5,000 for Semester or Year programs. You complete the application online. The deadlines for the Gilman scholarship are usually April 15 or September 22. For more information go to the website at:

<http://www.iie.org//programs/gilman/index.html>.

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program

The Gilman Program offers scholarship for students with financial need who have been under-represented in education abroad. Award amounts will vary depending on the length of study. The average award is $4,000. Undergraduate students who are receiving federal Pell Grant funding at 2-year or 4-year colleges or universities are eligible to apply. Study Aboard students are eligible to receive an additional $3,000 for studying for the Critical Need Languages (Arabic, Chinese, Turkic, Persian, Indic, Korean, and Russian). Online application is available for Fall 2009 (programs beginning July 15 and October 15 2009) in February.

Application deadline is April 7 2009.

For more information, visit www.iie.org/gilman

Boren Scholarship and Fellowships (former National Security Education Program)

Boren Scholarship gives up to $20,000 for undergraduate and $30,000 to graduate students depending on the cost and length of program to study less commonly taught language in the world regions, in the exchange for their commitment to seek work in the federal government. The Scholarship is funded by National Security Education Program. Application Deadline is January 29, 2009 for graduates and February 11, 2009 for undergraduate students. For more information, visit www.borenawards.org

Boren Fellowships provide support up to $30,000 for graduate students at the master's and doctoral level of overseas and domestic study, in exchange for their commitment to seek work in the Federal government. Boren Fellowships support study and research in areas of the world that are critical to U.S. interest, including Africa, Asia, Central & Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin

American, and the Middle East. The Application Deadline is January 29, 2009. All application must be submitted online. For more information, visit www.borenawards.org

Central Europe Summer Research Institute

Sponsored by the National Science Foundation and managed by the Institute of International Education, CESRI is a fellowship opportunity for U.S. graduate students in science and engineering who are seeking a quality hands-on international research experience in Austria, the Czech Republic, Germany, Hungary, Poland, Slovakia. The CESRI program will be 8 weeks in length. The first week is for orientation and the participants will spend the remaining 7 weeks working individually-arranged placement in University labs or other sites under the supervision of European mentors.

The application deadline was February 4, 2008. (Only 14 grants) For more information, visit <http://www.iie.org/Content/NavigationMenu/Programs7/CESRI/CESRI.htm>

Country Specific Scholarships

ASIAN COUNTRIES

Freeman Awards for Study in ASIA

Freeman-ASIA (Freeman Awards for Study in Asia) is designed to support American undergraduates with demonstrated financial need who are planning to study overseas in East or Southeast Asia. The award is funded by Freeman Family.

Application Deadline is Wednesday, October 15, 2008 for Spring 2009 & early Academic Year 2009-10. No Funding is available after Spring.

CHINA/TAIWAN

Wang Family Scholarship

Ten $4,000 scholarships will be awarded to students for study at selected universities in China, and ten $4,000 scholarships will be awarded to students for study at selected universities in Taiwan. Scholarship recipients must also apply and be admitted to study abroad with IP in China or Taiwan.

Applications are due February 1. For more information please come to UH-235 or send an email to mlagos@csusb.edu

JAPAN

Bridging Scholarship for Study in Japan

Undergraduate students majoring in any field of study are eligible to apply for these scholarships. Japanese language study is not a prerequisite. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and must be enrolled as undergraduates in a college or university in the United States before and during the time they are studying abroad. Bridging Scholarship recipients receive a stipend of $2,500 (for students on semester-long programs) or $4,000 (for students on academic year programs). Students studying in Japan on summer programs are not eligible to apply.

Deadline: April 06 2009 for Fall 2009

<http://www.colorado.edu/ealld/atj/Bridging/scholarships.html>

Morgan Stanley Japan Scholarship

Underscoring its long-term commitment to education and fostering US-Japan relations, Morgan Stanley, which has had a presence in Japan for more than 35 years, is proud to support the US-Japan Foundation's Bridging Project for Study Abroad in Japan. Two $7,500 US scholarships are awarded to US students studying in Japan for the academic year beginning September 2007.

Eligible students include juniors and seniors at US universities with an interest in economics and international finance who have been accepted for study in Japan for the 2007-2008 academic year. Bridging Scholarship application forms and information can be found at:

www.colorado.edu/ealld/atj/Bridging/scholarships.html

Deadline: April 6 for 2009-2010

<http://www.colorado.edu/ealld/atj/Bridging/Morgan.html>

National Scholarships/Japanese Government (Monbugakusho) Scholarships: formally administrated by AIEJ (Association of International Education, Japan)

These scholarships cover all the expenses for university study in Japan. Application is through the Japanese Embassy or through a Japanese University for both undergraduate and graduate students planning to study abroad in Japan.

<http://educationjapan.org/jguide/scholarships.html>

The deadline for applications is usually in early February of each year, for studies commencing in April.

Ward Wallach Memorial International Scholarship

Available to IP students selected for Japan only, the award is $500 per year. Students accepted to study in Japan on the IP program would automatically be considered for this scholarship.

Selection will be based on financial need and a commitment to the study of the Japanese language and civilization as demonstrated in the regular IP application. No additional application materials are necessary. For more information please come to UH-235 or send an email to mlagos@csusb.edu

INDIA

Awards for Environmental Research in India, 2005

The Fulbright Indo-American Environmental Leadership Program is a fellowship program designed for mid/senior-level professionals in the public, private or NGO sectors. For more information, please go to www.ie.org/iaelp or email Megan Kennedy, program officer at mkennedy@iie.org.

SAUDI ARABIA

KAUST Discovery Scholarship

New Scholarship Opportunity for Undergraduate Students in Science and Technology

The KAUST Discovery Scholarship is the general scholarship program of the King Abdullah University of Science and Technology (KAUST).

This program is designed to ensure that any highly talented student who is qualified and eligible to enroll in KAUST will receive full financial support while at the University. Those who receive a Discovery Scholarship will receive full tuition support, a living stipend, and summer and career enrichment programs.

KAUST will offer a pre-enrollment version of this general scholarship program to students attending first-university or bachelor's degree programs. KAUST will provide financial support to pre-enrollment Discovery Scholarship recipients at their home institutions prior to the University's opening. Upon graduation, these students will enter KAUST as master's degree students in September 2009 and 2010 to complete their graduate studies on a fully funded scholarship. For more information visit www.kaust.edu.sa. Deadline is Friday, January 16th, 2009.

GERMANY

Baden-Württemberg Fellowship

The State of Baden-Württemberg provides a limited number of fellowships to students for study in Germany. The minimum monthly installment is 400 Euros per month. The fellowships can be awarded for up to 11 months. Students' from all academic fields are welcome to apply. All applicants must have completed at least four semesters of German prior to departure. Priority is given to students from universities that have formal ties to German universities in the state of Baden-Württemberg. Therefore, your application must be sent to Germany by the Office of International Programs (OIP). Submit your letter of application to your campus IP Coordinator by February 1. For more information please come to UH-235 or send an email to m Lagos@csusb.edu

FRANCE/CANADA

Switzer Scholarship

IP students accepted for France or Quebec are automatically considered to receive a scholarship. For additional information contact the World Languages and Literatures Department, University Hall Building, Room 314, Telephone number 909.880.5847.

UNITED KINGDOM

Each year BUTEX awards sixteen scholarships to students studying abroad for either a semester or for a whole academic year. Eight scholarships are available to UK students studying abroad in the USA or Canada and a further eight scholarships are available to North American students studying in the UK. Visit <http://www.butex.ac.uk/?q=node/12>

Other Scholarships

DiversityAbroad.com Study Abroad Scholarship

Diversity Abroad, in cooperation with AIFS, will offer twenty, $1,000 scholarships for full-time undergraduate (both community college and university level) students studying abroad during fall 2008, spring 2009 and summer 2009. Six scholarships are available for the fall, six for the spring and eight for the summer.

Applicants must be full-time undergraduates at a university or community college based in the United States. Students must participate in a study abroad program offered by a Diversity Abroad member organization (see eligible program list: http://studyabroad.diversityabroad.com/da-search.cfm).

Economically disadvantaged students, African-American, Asian-American, Hispanic/Latino, Multiracial/ethnic or Native-American undergraduate students are strongly encouraged to apply.

Please visit <http://www.coloradocollege.edu/international/Diversity%20Abroad%20-20Study%20Abroad%20Scholarship.pdf> for the application process and requirement.

Global Engineering Education Exchange Program

Global Engineering Education Exchange Program is an international exchange program for engineering and computer science students at member institutions. The program offers the opportunity for American students to study in one of 17 countries overseas, and for international students at partner campuses to study in the United States. The program is designed to allow students to take courses overseas for credit at their home institutions.

Deadline for U.S student is October 1 2008 and for Non-U.S student is September 15 2008 for spring, and March 2 2009 for Fall. Please visit <http://www.iie.org/programs/global-e3/>

HACU Scholarship Programs - Click here to apply!

The scholarship programs administered by HACU are made possible due to generous contributions from corporate and federal organizations.

To be eligible to apply for one of HACU's scholarships, students must be attending a HACU Member or Partner college or university (visit <http://www.hacu.net/> for a complete listing) and meet all additional criteria for the program to which they are applying. Some programs may be available for high school seniors intending to enroll in a HACU-member institution in the Fall. HACU uses one scholarship application for the several different programs it administers. Program criteria will vary based on the requirements of the funding organization, e.g., specific major, level of study, college/university, region of the country, etc. Scholarship amounts also vary depending on the program, usually ranging from $500 - $2,000 per year. Most of the scholarships are not renewable. Although students may apply for more than one program, they are encouraged to apply to the program for which they best qualify.

Scholarships materials are sent to the Financial Aid Office at HACU Member and Partner colleges and universities and also to other contacts HACU has at its member institutions.

Scholarship applications for the 2008-2009 academic year will be available in January 2008 at scholarships.hacu.net and can be completed on-line. You may also contact scholarship@hacu.net for more information.

Hispanic/Cisneros Study Abroad Scholarship

The Cisneros Study Abroad Scholarship is a special scholarship offered as part of the Hispanic Study Abroad Scholars program. This program provides 1,000 Euro (approximately $1,250) in scholarship monies per student and is in addition to the HSAS.

Please visit the Hispanic Study Abroad Scholars Website <http://www.studyabroadscholars.org/index.html> to view the scholarship details and eligibility requirements. You can also contact us at: HSAS@GlobalSemesters.com or call us at (877) 300-7010, ext 6 (toll-free) to see if the HSAS program could be right for you.

Knowledge Exchange Scholarships

The KEI Scholarship Program offers awards of $500 to $1,000 US per term. KEI Scholarship applications are evaluated on the basis of merit and need. To be considered, students must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale, demonstrate leadership potential, be involved in extracurricular activities and show financial need. The decision of the selection committee is final and is not subject to appeal. For more information go to website at <http://www.keiabroad.org> ph. (800) 831 5095 e-mail: info@knowledgeexchange.org

Phi Kappa Phi

For students who seek knowledge abroad twenty $1,000 Study Abroad Grants are available annually. The due date is in mid February. For more information and to receive an application contact the national headquarters at awards@phikappaphi.org or visit the website www.PhiKappaPhi.org Deadline: February 11, 2009

Takis Chrysanthou Achievement Scholarship

Global Learning Semesters offers the Takis Chrysanthou Achievement Scholarship to one student each semester. The student must be attending a semester-long program that is home-based in Cyprus.

The scholarship winner is selected based on academic merit, expected contribution to the group experience, and financial need. 2,500 USD direct grant that is credited against program fees is awarded each semester. In order to be eligible for this scholarship a student must first be accepted into a semester-long Global Learning Semesters program based in Cyprus and then send us the following:

*A copy of his or her latest FAFSA

*A list of expected financial aid from other sources

*An essay, not to exceed 600 words, describing what he or she will contribute to the group experience on the program.

Please visit this website for more information:

<http://scholarships.goabroad.com/listingsp3.cfm/listing/189>

The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International Ambassadorial Scholarship

- Academic-Year Ambassadorial Scholarships provide a flat grant of $25,000 for one academic year of study in another country. These awards are intended to help defray costs associated with round-trip transportation, tuition and other fees, room and board, and some educational supplies. They are the most common type of Ambassadorial Scholarships.
- Multi-Year Ambassadorial Scholarships help fund two years of degree-oriented study in another country. A flat grant of $12,500 is provided each year.
- Cultural Ambassadorial Scholarships help finance either three or six months of intensive language study and cultural immersion in another country. They provide a flat grant of $12,000 for three months and $17,000 for six months. Funds are intended to offset costs associated with round-trip transportation, language training, and home stay living arrangements. Applications are considered for candidates interested in studying Arabic, English, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Mandarin Chinese, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Swahili, and Swedish.

For 2010-11 awards, club deadlines may be as early as 1 March 2009 or as late as 15 August 2009.

Whitaker International Fellows and Scholar Program

This program is for Biomedical Engineers from graduating seniors through post-doctorate. Potential overseas activities could include: conducting research at an academic institution, interning at a policy institute, establishing ties between home and host institutions, and pursuing post-doctoral research. The deadline for the 2009-10 competition is January 26, 2009. Visit www.whitaker.org

Other Resources

IIE Internship Programs

The IIE European Office hosts an internship program for college students or recent graduates who wish to gain cultural and professional experience while interning with an international non-profit organization. The Institute, located in the center of Budapest, provides an excellent opportunity to combine work responsibilities with the exploration of local sites. The IIE European Office maintains close ties with the U.S. Embassy, Fulbright Commission in Hungary, Central European University (CEU), American Chamber of Commerce in Hungary, Hungarian universities and other partner institutions. Deadline:

IIE Passport Study Abroad Funding

IIE Passport Study Abroad Funding allows applicants to search by country or subject to find the study abroad funding information they need. The comprehensive database of study abroad scholarships, fellowships, and grants can help make student's dream of studying abroad a financial possibility and a profound reality. Please visit <http://www.studyabroadfunding.org> for more information.

International Scholarships

The International Scholarship Search is the premier financial aid, college scholarship and international scholarship resource for students wishing to study abroad. Please visit <http://www.internationalscholarships.com> for more information.